May 14 - Acts 4:13 - Just Like Him

Hello and thanks for joining in on to today's daily devotion. Today is Saturday. May 14th. The 7th day of the Hebraic week. And everybody says "HalleluYah."

Our verse today is Acts 4:13.

Acts 4:13 When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Yeshua.

What a powerful verse. Can this be said of you? I mean, think about it. When you are around people, can they tell that you have been with Yeshua? Can they see in you the qualities that came out of Him?

If you think about it, this verse really exemplifies that old phrase from years ago "WWJD". What would Jesus do? Why? Because these people could tell that the disciple had been with Him in how they were acting just like Him. Thus, they were living the WWJD right in front of everyone. And everyone could see it.

Where is your walk at today? What comes to peoples mind when they see you? When you respond, react or interact with others, what's the first thing that comes to their mind? Are they immediately drawn to conclude that you've been with Yeshua? Or are they immediately drawn to conclude that you need to spend time with Yeshua?

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until tomorrow, shalom!
