Unworthy - Luke 17:10

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Luke 17:10 So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’”

No matter how much you have done. No matter how much you may think you have done. No matter how straight you think you have walked. No matter how much you have given. No matter how much you may have helped others. No matter how long you have been in the faith. No matter the amount of people you have influenced to walk in the faith. No matter how much you have encouraged others. No matter how much you sacrificed for the cause of Messiah. No matter how humble or faithful you think you have been. No matter any and all accomplishments you have done in the name of YHWH. No matter it all.

We are all unworthy servants.

One more time. “So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’”

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, shalom!
