Represent - Colossians 4:6

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Col. 4:6 Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Just to make sure that we don't start running through our day too quickly. I want us to read this one more time but a little slower.

Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

So when you talk to others, in person, on the phone, by e-mail or by some social media, how is your side of the conversation? Is it seasoned with grace? Think about that for a second? How are you representing the Most High in your speech? Even if it is written, how does your speech make the one you serve look? Have you ever asked yourself that before?

Does the Most High shake His head in disappointment in regards to how you treat other believers? Is He ever disappointed in how you talk to or about other believers? Do you want grace given to you? Then shouldn't you give grace to others?

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, shalom!
