Don't Conceal and Carry - Matthew 10:26

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Matt. 10:26 “So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.

There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. So, does that encourage you or concern you? Everybody has something that they're ashamed of. Everybody. Yet, past mistakes are just that. In the past. We are to learn from those mistakes. Even if it was a mistake that was made yesterday, we are to learn from it and not let it drag us down.

If it was a mistake that required forgiveness, then make sure it's forgiven. However, if you have repented, then there's nothing to be concerned with. On the other hand, if you are carrying sin and are continually hiding it from others, well, that's a different situation. If you are holding on to a sin in secret, remember, there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. Just as much as that verse applies to those who are oppose the Truth, it applies to all.

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, shalom!
