The Walk of Abraham - Genesis 26:4,5

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Gen. 26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, 5 because Abraham obeyed me and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws.”

Abraham obeyed YHWH in keeping His requirements, commands, decrees and laws. Since Abraham is called the Father of the faith, doesn't it only make sense that we should walk in the way the father of our faith walked in?

Yeshua himself said to the Pharisees “If you were Abraham's children, then you would do the things Abraham did.” That's found in John 8:39. If we claim that we ourselves are in the faith of Abraham, wouldn't Yeshua's words be true of us as well? Absolutely. So where is your walk at today in comparison to the father of the faith? Are you walking in YHWH's requirements, commands, decrees and laws? If not, why not? And more importantly, can we really say we are of the faith of Abraham if we aren't walking the walk of Abraham?

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, shalom!
