A Humble Walk - Romans 12:3

Welcome to Scriptures for Life with TorahFamily.org. Taking time to focus on the Father's way.

Romans 12:3 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you.

“Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought.” In other words, walk humbly. If we all put a microscope to our walk, It wouldn't take long to see something we need to work on. We all know the Father is working on something in our lives. There's not one person who has mastered their walk in the faith.

This tells us there's not one person who shouldn't be walking humbly before YHWH. That means we should be walking humbly with one another. There's not one person who should look down on another. Not one. Even if you have incredible knowledge or some awesome gift. It doesn't matter. We all are in need.

So, be mindful of that. Keep your view of yourself in the proper perspective at all times. A view that says “Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment.”

Let this be a focus in your time of meditation throughout the day. Until next time, Shalom.
